

BINGHAM FOOTBALL

*YOU CAN'T WIN THEM ALL:
BUT GOOD THINGS HAPPEN IF YOU TRY*

After two consecutive 5A state championships, Bingham was the state's most-dominant football program. However, that also put a big target on the Miners' backs. Fortunately, they were still pretty good and had continued success, even if it didn't result in a state title in 2011. PAGES 4-5.

IF YOU USE YOUR IMAGINATION, THESE PHOTOS ARE GOOD AS WHAT YOU'LL FIND IN SPORTS ILLUSTRATED

Bingham had five games at home, five on the road and one at Rice-Eccles Stadium against Alta in the second annual "Black and Blue Classic." All the time, they were inspired and showed up ready to play. There are over 100 different photos in this book, to see some of the best, go toPAGES 30-31.

SENIOR TOOK THE LEAD AND HAD A LOT TO TELL

Daniel Palepoi came to Bingham as a lineman and left as one of the top RBs in school history. Keeping up with Harvey Langi wasn't easy, but considering how many times he touched the ball, he tried. PAGES 38-43.
