

Summer Camp

For almost two weeks – Aug. 9-21 – the Bingham Marching Band met at the high school to prepare for its performances of the upcoming season.

For band members, this marks the start of the school year, and the many hours that come on the football and nearby practice fields.

“It’s hard,” said director Darin Graber. “You have to put together a musical program, play and march. It all starts here.”

BINGHAM BAND: Summer Camp

