

Dec. 4 – Weber 57, Bingham 49

Story of the game: Desiree Young and Kennedy Allen hit key free throws in the second quarter as Weber edged Bingham in a non-region game, scoring more respect for Region 1 teams in girls basketball.

Bingham’s highlights: Summer Yack paced Bingham with 11 points and Jillian Powell added 10, but the Miners offense stalled in the second half. They made just six baskets after halftime, and three were three-pointers.

Weber’s highlights: Young was the game’s high scorer with 14 points, but Lindsey Gavin was the star. She had a season-high nine points and added eight rebounds.

Statistical information: The game was closer than the score indicated. Weber’s late-game free throw shooting opened the margin. Bingham made just 6-16 charity shots. Weber was 13-22.

What we learned from this game: Another slow start for Bingham, except this time the Miners didn’t rally. They made up for it the next few games. The win improved Weber to 3-0. The Warriors would eventually finish 16-5 and take third place in their region.

Dec. 7 – Bingham 82, Cyprus 32

Story of the game: Summer Yack scored 11 of her season-high 21 points in the first quarter as Bingham grabbed a big lead and had no trouble with Cyprus in a non-region game.

Bingham’s highlights: Yack bombed away. She had 18 points by halftime, and she and Lateesha Richards had outscored the entire Cyprus team. The Miners dominated throughout. Their shooting was much better and they never let up. Every player on the roster got into the game.

Cyprus’ highlights: The Pirates trailed 23-8 by the end of the first quarter and 47-22 at halftime. Center Lori Parkinson had 12 points, and Erica Scott came off the bench to add seven. This would be Cyprus’ worst loss of the season.

Statistical information: Bingham’s 82 points would be its season high. The Miners had 16 players reach the scoring column. Parkinson was a big player inside. She had a game-high 16 rebounds.

What we learned from this game: The Miners bounced back from their first loss and never let up. Yack took over, and made it apparent she knew her role was to score points. Her effort gave the team added momentum.
