

Taylor Morris gets by a defender and eyes another goal.

Brett McCarty tries to run past a Copper Hills player.

April 20 – Bingham 10, Copper Hills 9

Story of the game: Cole Christensen and Chris Severson scored three times each, but it was Taylor Morris's goal in the final seconds that made the difference and gave Bingham the Sandy Division victory.

Bingham's highlights: This game was close throughout, with no team having a clear advantage until Morris hit the winning score. In the end, this also decided the league standings since it was Copper Hills' lone league loss. Morris actually had two goals, and Nick Smith and Jordan Shumway added one each.

Statistical notes: This had to have been a great match to watch. Justin Park had two assists, and Tyler White and Mike Jones one apiece. Goalie Aaron Hansen was credited with seven saves. This was Bingham's only game of the season that went down to the end.

What we learned from this match: This was an important win for the Miners, and the way they did it made it even sweeter.

Coach Heaton's comments: "It went back and forth the whole game. Copper Hills is a tough team. They are always on all cylinders. I called timeout with a minute left and just told them to play for the last shot. We had a play designed that we wanted to do. It was a very windy day and we were yelling from the sideline to start the play, but no one could hear. All of a sudden, there were only seconds left and Taylor Morris put in a drop shot, and it was perfect. It hit the top bar and went into the net. The shot was just right on."

Tyler White has the ball and looks for an open teammate.