

#10 - Sydney Myers

Daughter of Kim Myers and Tim Alfieri, who has been in her life since she was 18 months old. Syd played at Brighton for three years as a varsity player. As a senior, she was one of this year's team captains. As a freshman, she was named "rookie of the year" by her coaches. She plans to USC next year to play soccer. She has not yet decided on a major, but has interest in medicine in some capacity.

When not playing or watching soccer on TV, Syd loved to snow ski, go boating, running, watching movies on her computer and hanging out with her friends and family.

Message from parents: "Sydney, we are so proud of the young woman you have become. You are hard working, kind, sweet, and very loving. You are beautiful on the inside and out. Good luck in all of your future endeavors and, while out there making a life of your own, know that we are here loving you and wishing you all the best always. Love you lots, baby girl!!"

TOP RIGHT: Sydney Myers prepares to be interviewed by a local TV station after the 5A title game
MIDDLE LEFT: Myers heads the ball against Riverton during her junior season. MIDDLE RIGHT: Myers poses with her mother on "Senior Day."
LOWER LEFT: Myers and XXXX celebrate the title. LOWER MIDDLE: Myers steals the ball from an East player.