

#14 - Kamryn Djahanbani

Daughter of BJan and Becky Djahanbani. Kami played for four years at Brighton as a defender and wing, and earned a varsity letter each time.

As a senior, she was a team captain. She committed to playing soccer at Southern Virginia University next fall. She will study Pre-Med, and eventually wants to become an anesthesiologist.

When not playing soccer, Kami was president of French Club, vice president of the National Honor Society, yearbook editor, on Seminary Youth Council, and was a special needs counselor.

This didn't leave a lot of free time, but when she did have free time, she loved hanging out with friends, driving her beater car named "Raul" and watching the TV show, Duck Dynasty. Her first love is Costco's chocolate cake!

Message from Parents: "Kami, you are probably the best person we know. You have brought us so much happiness and we are so extremely proud of the amazing girl you are. You are a friend to all, and others love you for your kind heart and thoughtfulness. You have the right priorities and know what is important in life. You will most definitely make great contributions and be a great strength and light to others around you. You are beautiful inside and out. We love you very much, and are thankful that you are our daughter. We love you, "Pickles."
