

#23 – Breanna Rueckert

Daughter of Cheri Norris and Brian Rueckert, Breanna played three years at Brighton as a midfielder and defender, or anywhere else the coach put her - but never goalie!

She will be attending Westminster College next year. She says it reminds her of Hogwarts (from the Harry Potter movie series) because she believes she is much more than a “muggle.” She wants to major in spells, but if that doesn’t work out, nursing might be next. Breanna’s other interests include: shopping, rollerblading, hang gliding, hiking and skiing, but mostly she likes to watch Isaiah Kaufusi play football, and then shop some more!!

Breanna started playing soccer when she was 3 years old, and never stopped loving the game. She says her first coach was the best coach she could ever have – her mom, who coached for the first three years.

Breanna’s Sparta team won the State Cup six out of seven years and – lucky for her – the regional tournament was in Hawaii twice. Last year, her team took second place.

Breanna has been lucky to play on Brighton with her teammates and best friends. Her brothers and sister think she is the “favorite” child and spoiled.

Message from parents: Breanna might be one of the meanest defenders you will come across on the field, but off the field she is a very caring person, and loves to help those less fortunate than herself. Her family is very proud of her. We love you Breanna!
