Defensive linemen could play a key role in SIC this year

By Rachel Roberts Idaho Statesman

Starting quarterbacks will have to keep one eye on the line of scrimmage when they play Timberline and Eagle this season.

That's because the top two sack leaders from a year ago are back for another season at their respective schools.

Eagle defensive lineman Corey Nielson recorded a 5A Southern Idaho Conference-best nine sacks during the 2011 regular season, accounting for 56 lost yards. The 6-foot-3, 205-pound senior has caught the attention of college coaches.

"There is no doubt he has a gift for rushing the passer," Eagle coach Paul Peterson said. "For most offensive tackles, he's just too quick and too fast and too long for them."

After focusing on defense in 2011, Nielson will also start at offensive tackle for the Mustangs this season.

At Timberline, 6-5, 225-pound junior defensive end Don Hill is just getting started. Hill finished second in the conference last season with seven sacks for a loss of 59 yards. Third-year Timberline coach Kirk Copeland said college coaches are inquiring about the hard-hitter.

"Quarterbacks are definitely going to be aware of his presence," Copeland said. "He's big, he's strong, he's fast, he's athletic and he has a passionate desire to get to the quarterback."

Capital QB Makena Simis had most people thinking the Eagles would win the SIC this year.

Coach: Judd Benedick, sixth season, 32-17 Stadium: Mountain View High, Meridian

WINS THE PAST 5 YEARS

PLAYERS TO WATCH

Lane Chadwick

The 5-10, 205pound senior landed on the 5A All-Idaho second team and 5A SIC first team at linebacker last season with 112 tackles - including 15 for loss — and one interception. "He's got to put on that leadership hat that some of the older guys wore last year," coach Judd Benedick said.

Kai Turner

This will be the 5-9, 170-pound junior's third year as a starter, and he is coming off a season in which he passed for 1,254 yards and 11 TDs with only one INT. "I look for him to have a really solid year and lead our offense." Benedick said. Turner also added 649 rushing yards and another nine TDs.

John Munger OL/DL

The 6-4, 285-pound senior and two-year letterman will start at left tackle after playing right tackle last season for a team that averaged 27.8 points per game. "He's going to have to be a twoway guy for us this year, and he'll play almost the whole game on both sides of the ball," Benedick said.

Dylan Garcia OL/DL

The three-year letterman will move from guard to center, playing a crucial role for a team that favors the shotgun spread. "His snaps are right on the money," Benedick said. "He'll be the guy that will make all the right calls for us at center, and we know he'll be consistent with his snaps."

SCOUTING REPORT

OFFENSE

Offense could be the Mavericks' strong suit in 2012, as dual-threat quarterback Kai Turner will have plenty of talented options to throw to, including returning receivers Josh Buss (28 catches, 412 yards, 4 TDs), Connor Armstrong (15-207-3) and Collin Sale (14-143-1). "We have a lot of strong weapons, but we are really young up front," lineman Dylan Garcia said.

DEFENSE

The Mavericks limited opponents to a 5A SIC regular-season best 15.6 points per game last season, but have to fill eight starting positions vacated by seniors. Thirteen lettermen return, led by two-year starters Jordan Duncan (DL), Lane Chadwick (LB) and Beau White (DB).

OVERVIEW

Coach Judd Benedick cites defense and the offensive line as two key areas that will need to come together quickly in order to make another run at the state playoffs. "We will have to mature quickly on both sides of the ball," Benedick said. This will not be the big, physical team we had last year, but we should have good team speed."
