

Dec. 30 – Olympus 74, Taylorsville 41

Story of the game: Carter Young scored 12 points and Jordan Marsh and Colton Stewart had 11 each to help Olympus blow out Taylorsville in a non-region game.

Oly's highlights: The Titans dominated from the beginning. They led 30-12 at halftime and extended the margin to as many as 41 points. Olympus shot almost 70 percent from the field and 53.3 percent from three-point range.

Taylorsville's highlights: The Warriors got 20 points from David Smith, but couldn't keep up. They had an 8-0 run in the fourth quarter to make the final score more respectable. Jackson Roper had nine points.

Statistical notes: Oly looked good after the eight-day Christmas break. Despite shooting so well, the Titans were just 14-24 from the free-throw line. Young's 12 points was his season high. Marsh nailed three treys.

What we learned from this game: This was a dominating effort and there was no doubt of the outcome. Coach Matt Barnes got 11 players into the game and could have had more. Some players hit the scoring column for the first time this season.

Jan. 4 – West Jordan 74, Olympus 57

Story of the game: Sam Williams and Colton Stewart scored 13 points each, but Oly had no answer to West Jordan's scoring threats and fell in a non-region game.

Oly's highlights: The Titans trailed 35-30 at halftime, but couldn't keep up. The defense allowed West Jordan to shoot 65 percent from the field. Oly tried to rally with three-pointers and Williams nailed three. Nic Johnson got some playing time and had six points.

West Jordan's highlights: Jordan Loveridge scored 27 points, but the real effort was turned in by Skyler Ford, who had a season high 17. The Jags were credited with 21 assists on 28 baskets and hit 8-13 three-pointers.

Statistical notes: This was Oly's poorest defensive performance of the season. Stewart had 13 points and four rebounds, but hasn't been the same since Box Elder. He and Will Cannon each had three offensive boards, however.

What we learned from this game: This has been a good matchup recently between perennial 5A and 4A powers. It was also the last non-region game for both teams. West Jordan looked very good and avenged an embarrassing loss to the Titans on its home court last season. Loveridge created matchup problems and that opened things up for everyone else.
