

Coach Matt Barnes gives some advice to his players during a heated portion of their Region 6 contest against Woods Cross.

Jan. 7 – Woods Cross 60, Olympus 55

Story of the game: Will Cannon scored 22 points and Sam Williams had 18 as Olympus rallied from a 13-point deficit but dropped its Region 6 opener at home to Woods Cross.

Oly's highlights: The Titans trailed early, but rallied to take a seven-point lead. The defense forced 18 turnovers, and Cannon and Williams led a fourth-quarter rally that put the home crowd in a frenzied mood.

Woods Cross' highlights: Ryan Anderson had 24 points and Austin Bankowski had 17, including a pair of three-pointers. The Wildcats trailed 28-27 at halftime, but went on a 12-0 run to take a big lead.

Statistical notes: Woods Cross shot 54 percent from the field, while Oly was just 34.0. The Titans, however, had 14 offensive rebounds. Colton Stewart had an off night, shooting 3-15 from the field. Sam Williams fouled out for the only time all season.

What we learned from this game: The Wildcats had a good inside-outside combination and would prove to be a difficult opponent for Olympus. The Titans rallied by increasing the tempo and wouldn't forget that in future games.
