

ABOVE: Sam Williams eyes the basket as a Woods Cross player approaches to try to defend the shot.

RIGHT: Will Cannon scores two of his 16 points.

Feb. 1 – Olympus 82, Woods Cross 65

Story of the game: Colton Stewart had his best game in weeks and Oly’s guards contributed to a big effort in the second quarter as the Titans went to Woods Cross and throttled the Wildcats in a Region 6 game.

Oly’s highlights: Stewart had 21 points, nine rebounds and seven assists, but the real key to the game was how Oly amped its defensive pressure and went on a 16-0 second-quarter run to build a 40-16 halftime lead. The lead eventually reached 36. It was one of the team’s best efforts all season.

WX’s highlights: The Wildcats rallied in the fourth quarter with a season-high 33 points to make the final score more respectable. Austin Bankowski finished with 16 points.

Statistical notes: The Titans shot 65.1 percent from the field and made 7-13 three-pointers. Will Cannon had 16 points and Sam Williams 15. Oly’s passing was also impressive and it had 24 assists. The 82 points was a season high (to date).

What we learned from this game: The Titans played with a lot of motivation. Oly avenged an earlier loss at home to Woods Cross, and this game came just after a tough defeat to Highland.
