Feb. 18 – Olympus 63, Bountiful 52

Story of the game: Colton Stewart and Tanner Curtis scored 15 points apiece, and Stewart dominated the boards, as Olympus downed Bountiful to give itself a chance at the Region 6 title.

Oly's highlights: The Titans jumped on Bountiful early and held a seven-point lead going into the final quarter. Stewart had 11 rebounds as Oly held a 33-17 advantage in that department. The Titans made 11-12 free throws in the fourth quarter.

Bountiful's highlights: McKay LaSalle had 21 points, and accounted for three of the Braves' five three-pointers. Bountiful made the game interesting late, but couldn't stop Olympus.

Game statistics: Both teams shot about the same, and both had good nights at the free-throw line. The difference was in rebounding. Oly also grabbed 12 offensive boards. Sam Williams made just 1-11 shots, but was automatic at the free-throw line.

What we learned from this game: Oly never forgot losing at home to Bountiful in the final game last season that decided the region title. Oly now must beat Highland for a No. 1 seed at state.
