Sept. 17 – Skyline 3, Murray 0

Story of the game: Cate Christensen, Emma Heyn and Jaslyn Masina scored first-half goals as Skyline roared to an early lead and defeated Murray in a Region 7 game.

Skyline's highlights: On a sunny afternoon at Murray Park, the Eagles took control early and emptied the bench. Hillary Weixler had another great game against a region opponent and Skyline avoided an upset with rival Timpanogos approaching.

Murray's highlights: The Spartans had picked up some momentum with a win over Olympus a week earlier, but could not must much offense and were silenced by the Eagles for the second time this season.

Statistical notes: Masina had a goal for the third straight game and the Skyline defense netted a shutout for the third time in the last four contests. In two games, Skyline outscored Murray 9-0.

What we learned from this game: Murray played Skyline tougher, but this was game decided by half and coach Castillo was able to let everyone play.

Coach Castillo's comments: We had a difficult time scoring. Too many failed attempts kept the opposing team active in the first half. In second half, Murray got tired and could not keep up.

Sept. 19 – Skyline 2, Timpanogos 1

Story of the game: Bella Sorensen scored the go-ahead goal midway through the second half as Skyline held off Timpanogos and moved back into a tie for first place in Region 7.

Skyline's highlights: The Eagles pinned Timpanogos with its first loss this season. Skyline scored first and led 1-0 at halftime on a ball that bounced off a T-Wolves' player. Sorensen's score came just a few minutes after Timpanogos tied it.

Timpanogos's highlights: This match had a lot more defense than the previous one, and the T-Wolves weren't able to grab a big lead. Just when they got the momentum, Sorensen took it away. Goalkeeper Sydney Oldroyd stopped several shots.

Statistical notes: Timpanogos gave up 12 goals all season – and five were by Skyline.

What we learned from this game: There was a good crowd on hand as Skyline ended Timpanogos' win streak and moved into the No. 1 in the area newspaper's 4A rankings.

Coach Castillo's comments: Home sweet home. Both teams made similar mistakes to score for both teams. I like games like this when you have to be at your best. It felt so good to beat them.
