

#10 - Tysa Sillitoe

The best way to describe Tysa is to say that she lives for and loves soccer! She can be found on any given game day counting down the hours to kickoff while trying to contain her excitement at the same time.

Tysa started her soccer career at age 4 on a co-ed team where she proudly out played all the boys! She quickly excelled and was able to play up with her older sister for many years. Tysa's love of the game may also come from having her dad as a coach for many years.

Tysa became a Lady Eagles soccer player for as a sophomore when her family moved to the Salt Lake Valley. She has also played competitive soccer for Sparta United soccer club and Forza Futbo. Her love of life, abundant energy and motivation allow her to excel in her academic and athletic goals.

Tysa shines both on and off the soccer field. Some of her other interests include playing the violin, ASL, sewing, special needs volunteer work and developing her artistic talents. Her spirited personality is full of compassion, integrity and all around fun! Tysa loves any outdoor activity and the highlight of her summer was a backpacking trip with her sister and her dad in Utah's Uinta Mountains.

Tysa has had the honor and privilege of being able to make lifelong friendships at Skyline both on and off the field. She enjoys the alliance and teamwork of the Lady Eagles and she especially appreciates the many hours of instruction and support that she has received from our coaches and all of our volunteers that make Skyline Lady Eagles' soccer program possible.

Tysa is looking forward to pursuing her soccer career on a collegiate level and also plans to pursue a degree in physical therapy.

Tysa, we are so proud of the amazing young woman that you have become. You have a unique ability to brighten everyone's day and inspire those around you.
